LETTER IN POCKET TO MOTHER

A Schooner's Crew Saved By Life Boat of Hatteras Surfmen. The New Charter,

NORFOLK, VA., February 2.—The po-lice have not caught Leo C. Thurman with the horrible murder committeed at The police are satisfied that the man, Charles F. Taylor, who occupied the room with the murdered man, is none other than Leo C. Thurman, a marine discharged recently from the St. Helema. They have located Thurman's home in Memphis, Tenn., where his mother is said now to live. Memphis detectives are watching the house to arrest Thurman if he appears there.

A belief is entertained by some that Thurman has not yet left the city, but is now hidding somewhere within a mile of police headquarters. Every available man on the police and detective force of Norfolk is at work on the case, in hope of catching the fugitive. The police of other cities have been notified of the crime and supplied with descriptions of Thurman. Coroner R. S. Knight is delaying the inquest to await the result of the police's efforts to catch the murderer.

Chief of Police Boush received this afternoon the following telegram from N. H. Dolsen's body to St. Ignace, Mich. Has he money to cover expenses? If not, forward body. Money will be at bank in St. Ignace to cover expenses on arrival."

in St. Ignace to cover expenses on arrival."

Chief Boush said that upon the consent of the coroner he will turn the remains of Dolsen over to the Norfolk Lodge of Odd-Fellows, they to carry out the request of the young mans' family.

Among the letters found in the room was one addressed to his mother at Cedarville, Mich., where Polsen was to have started this morning, and which reeds as follows:

Cedarville, Mich., where Poisen was to have started this morning, and which reads as follows:

"Dear Mother, Father, Sisters and Brothers,—This is to let you know that I expect to start for home Thursday morning, if nothing happens, I have been discharged from the service after five years and five months, and it feels good to be a free man once more. Give my kisses to my two little nieces. From your devoted son, Waiter."

CREW RESCUED.

The three-masted schooner, Maggie S. Hart went ashore this morning at 1 o'clock about one mile south of Hatters Inlet Life-Saving station. Captain Barrett, commanding that station, and this crew too the eight persons aboard the vessel into their surf boat, conveyed them ashore and are caring for them at the station. The schooner salled from Wilmington, N. C., January 15, under command of Captain Foster, with a carry of tumber. Captain Foster. with a cargo of lumber. SAVED BABY LYON'S LIFE

Untold Suffering and Constant .Misery—Awful Sight From that Dreadful Complaint, Infantile Eczema - Commenced at Top of his Head and Covered Entire Body.

MOTHER PRAISES CUTICURA REMEDIES

"Our baby had that dreadful complaint, Infantile Ecsema, which afflicted him for several months, commencing at the top of his head, and at last covering his whole body. His sufferings were untold and constant misery, in fact, there was nothing we would not have done to have given him relief. The family doctor seemed to be wholly incapable of coping with the case, and after various experiments of his, which resulted in no benefit to the child, we sent to Mazon, Ill., to a druggist and got a full set of the Cuticura Remedies and applied as per directions, and he began to improve immediately, and in about three or four days began to show a brighter spirit and really laughed, for the first time in a year. In about ninety days he was fully recovered, with the exception of a rough skin, which is gradually disappearing, and eventually will be replaced by a healthy one.

"Praise for the Cuticura Remedies has always been our greatest pleasure, and there is nothing too good that we

"Praise for the Cuticura Remedies has always been our greatest pleasure, and there is nothing too good that we could say in their favor, for they certainly saved our baby's life, for he was the most awful sight that I ever beheld, prior to the treatment of the Cuticura Remedies. Mr. Griffin has made a most excellent official, and has improved the postal service and facilities here in many ways.

A colored girl, while walking along the hanks of a creek, a tributary of the Potomac River, on the farm of Mr. E. Goodridge, in Westmoreland county, a few days ago, discovered a jar sticking out of the mud, where the tide had receded, and digging around it she was able to pull it up, and found it contained a large quantity of Spanish silver coin, said to be worth $500. The coins were of old dates, none being more recent than sixtyfive years ago. The money was turned over to Mr. Goodridge,
